ELEN L. KISINGER

ditor in Chief

Everything has its season, everything has its time,
Show me a reason and I'll soon show you a rhyme.
Cats fit on the window sill, children fit in the snow.
Why do I feel like I don't fit in anywhere I go?

Every man has his daydreams, every man has his goal,
People like the way dreams have of sticking to the soul.
Rain comes after thunder, winter comes after fall.
Sometimes I think I'm not after anything at all.

Maybe some misty day, you'll waken to find me gone.
And far away you'll hear me singing to the dawn.
And you'll wonder if I'm happy there, a little more than I've been.
And the answer will come back to you like laughter in the wind.

Rivers belong where they can ramble,
Eagles belong where they can fly;
I've got to be where my spirit can run free,
Got to find my corner of the sky.*

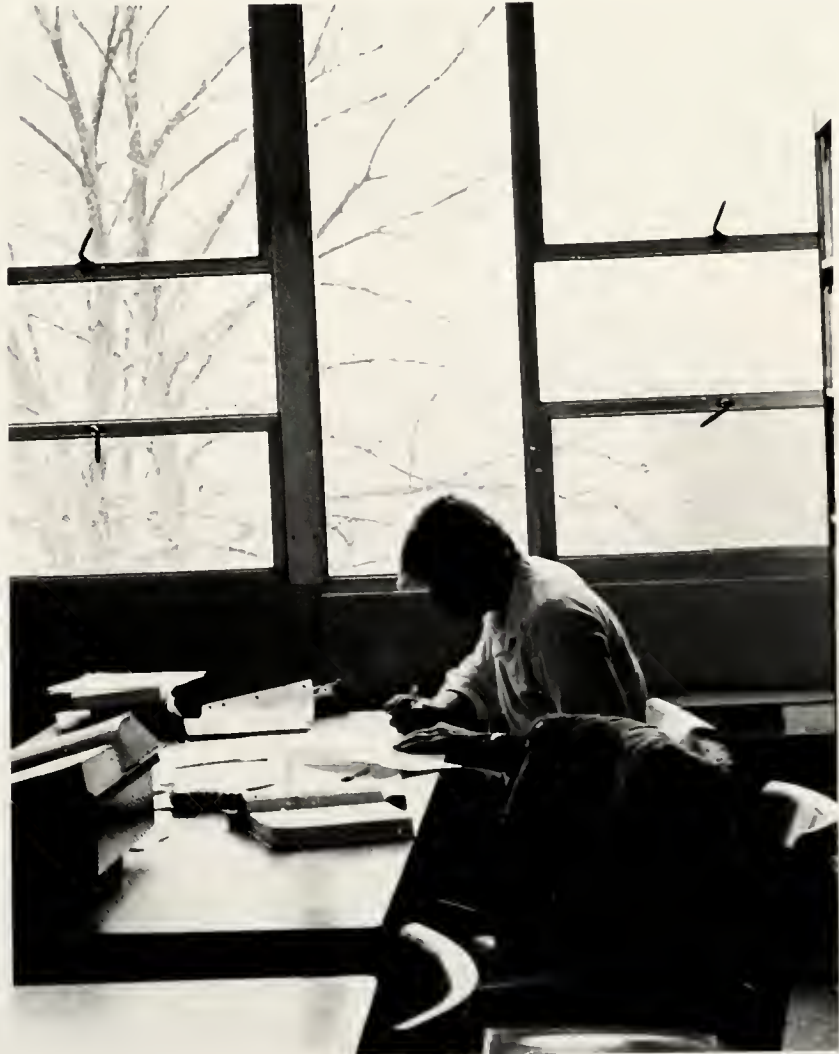

*Used w th permission

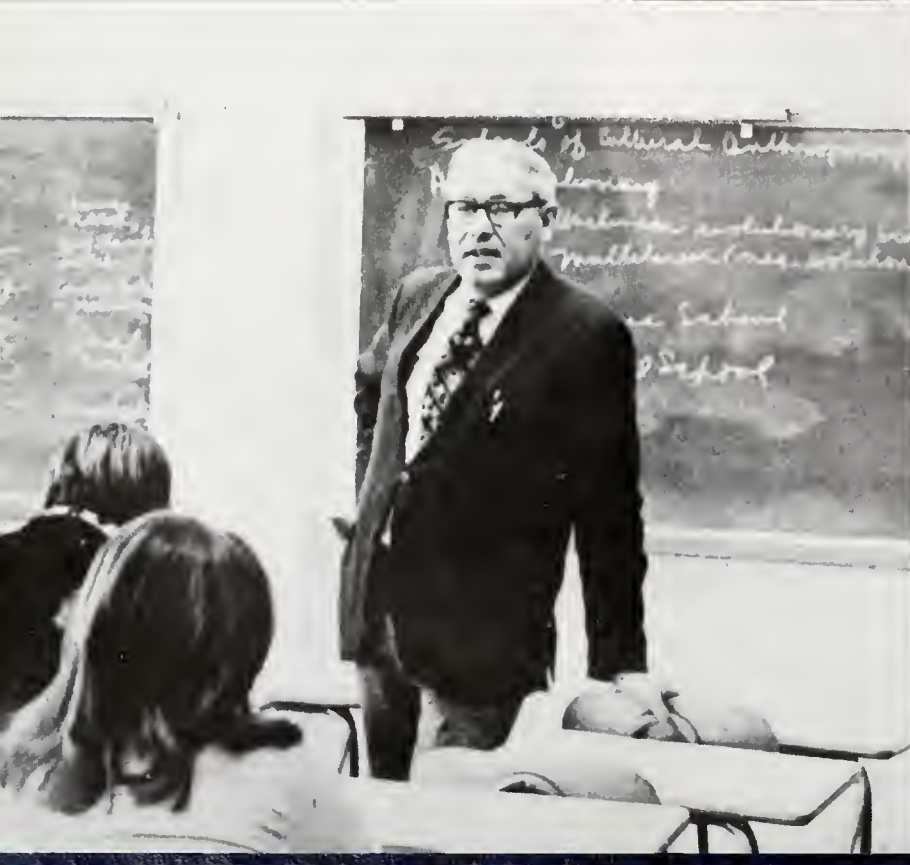

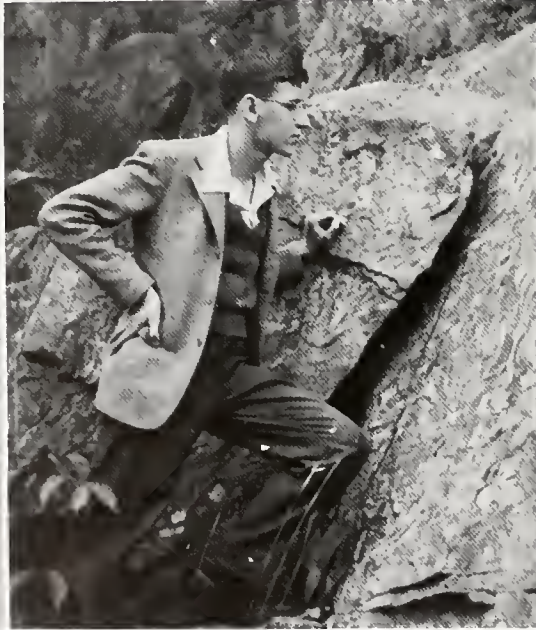

And the answer
will come back to you Like laughter
in the wind

A. Williams

The Administration and Faculty section of this year's book is dedicated to Mr. Avery Sheaffer. Mr. Sheaffer joined the teaching staff here in 1963 and was an associate professor in the Sociology and social work department until his passing in January, 1979.

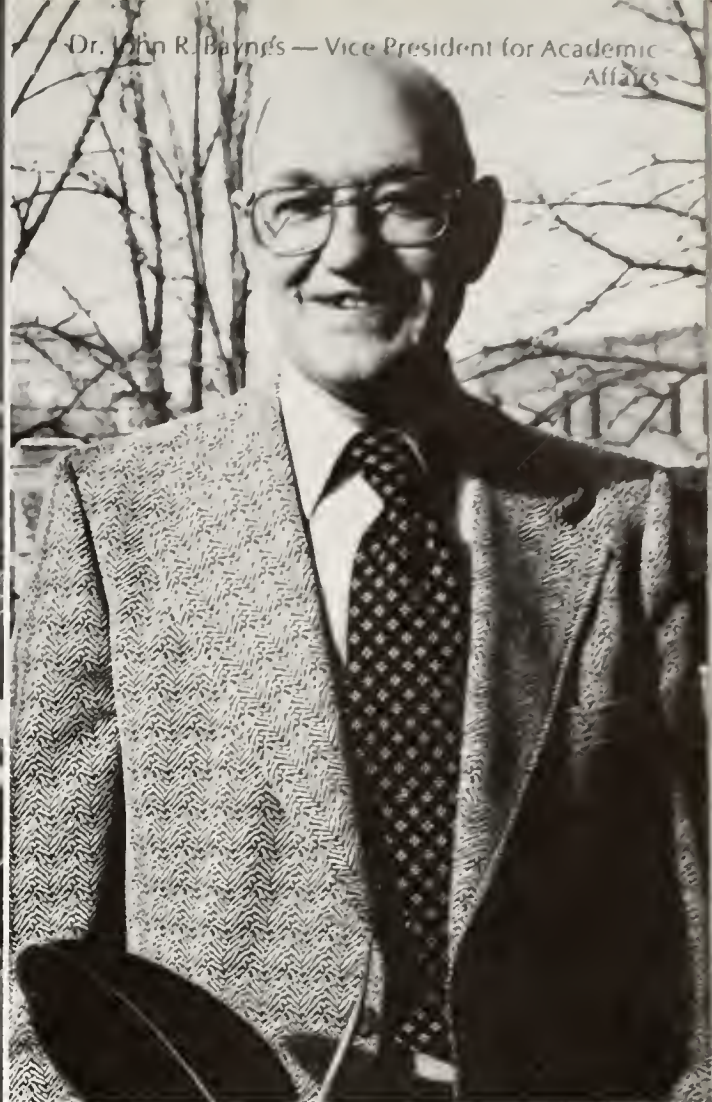

Lead me
Through the dark.
Blind, I cannot see.

Show me,
As we walk the narrow path,
The way to go.
You are my eyes,
Through them I see the world.

HOMECOMING 1978

... began on Friday evening, October 27, with a bonfire and pep rally up at the water tower

The Homecoming Parade, on Saturday morning, kicked off the day's events, which included a cross country meet with the Univ. of Scranton, and in football, it was the Mansfield Mounties up against SUNY @ Brockport.

Halftime activities were highlighted by the crowning of Kathy Smith as Homecoming Queen, 1978, and the Parade of Bands from area high schools.

Other activities that evening were a dance at the Rec Center, Octubafest, and the showing of "The Sting"

"A Night with Janis Ian" on Sunday, brought Homecoming Weekend to an end.

To those whose picture didn't make it in: Know that I tried my best and that no one is more painfully aware of your absence than I.

To the people who gave me their full cooperation: I only wish I could personally repay all of you. You are the people that made working all night all those nights worth it.

To everyone else: I hope you've enjoyed the book. I also hope that the time you've spent here has brought you a little closer to your own corner of the sky.
